

Reason To Make An Estate Plan #35:

Your daughter, Victoria

- At age 45, she's on her third husband
- Has a charge account at every clothing store in town
- Takes riding lessons, yoga classes and has a personal trainer
- Wears shoes that cost $400
- Calls everyone, including you, "dah-ling"

Are you sure you want to leave all your life's work to her?
No strings attached?

Why NOW Is The Time To Do Estate Planning

- Designate who will manage your affairs if you become disabled and when you pass away.
- Avoid probate, during your lifetime and when you pass away.
- Plan for Medicaid and its impact on your estate if you must go into a nursing home.
- Protect assets inherited by your heirs from lawsuits, divorces, and other claims.

Whether you are single, married, with or without children, young or elderly, estate planning can help you get the most out of life while preparing for the possibility of incapacity or death. An estate planning attorney can help you choose the plan that is right for you.
